The Austin Family had tired of the California lifestyle and was looking for a different way of life. The family spent two summers touring 47 states in a motor home and landed in Alpena, Michigan to check out a Great Lake. They ended up staying a couple of days and fell in love with the area, decided to open a microbrewery, and move their families here. Since then, Austin Bros has become a consistently safe bet for quality beer and tasty pub food. Pride is taken in the words “fresh” and “local.” If they did not make it in-house, someone close by did!

Highlights of Recurring Programs

What the Heck is Spitzer by Marilyn Klingshirn

Spitzer is a card game of German origin. It's played in our area of northeast Michigan (Alpena, Rogers City, Posen).

When I was young, Aunt Francie and Uncle Joe Marzean would play Spitzer with my parents at our home on Swan River Road. I, myself, learned the game after I was married. I joined my husband and father-in-law and played in a league at Louie's Bar in Posen in the 1970s.

Spitzer is "normally" played with four players. However, there are adaptations for play with three or five players. We use part of a standard deck of cards. We remove all cards 2-6. I like to say we don't play with a full deck. (Tee Hee)

Spitzer is a trick taking game and the aim is to win tricks containing valuable cards. Although player form temporary alliances for each hand—two against two or one against three—they keep separate scores and ultimately play for themselves, the object being to be the first to achieve a score of 42 or more points.

In Spitzer trump is always the same. There are 14 trump—all the queens, jacks, and diamonds. This is the rank of trump cards from high to low with their point value.

Q ♣ 3	7 ♦ 0	Q ♠ 3	Q ♥ 3	Q ♦ 3	J ♣ 2	J ♠ 2	J ♥ 2	J ♦ 2	A ♦ 11	10 ♦ 10	K ♦ 4	9 ♦ 0	8 ♦ 0
-------------	-------------	-------------	-------------	-------------	-------------	-------------	-------------	-------------	--------------	---------------	-------------	-------------	-------------

The rest of the clubs, spades and hearts are non-trump, called fails (from the German Fehifarbe). The fail in each suit rank from high to low: A, 10, K, 9, 8, 7.

Oh boy I hope I haven't overwhelmed you. Spitzer is a fun game but we do need to concentrate. Please, come check the game out. Whether you are completely new to the game, haven't played for 32 years or are a seasoned player, you are welcome. We are a patient group! We play for fun, not for blood. Spitzer is played on Thursdays each week from 10:00 to 11:30 am in the M. Briggs Center.

Thank you—Coordinator, Marilyn Klingshirn.
